SHERRI RENEE HILLMAN )

On January 8, 2021, the Court granted Defendant Sherri Renee Hillman's motion for emergency medical furlough and ordered her release from detention at the Laurel County Correctional Center so that she could receive medical treatment after contracting COVID-19. [Order, Doc. 763]. At the time, Ms. Hillman, who has underlying conditions, was seriously ill and required the use of a ventilator. [Id. at 1]. The Court directed the United States Probation Office to monitor Ms. Hillman and ensure her presence at the hospital while she is on medical furlough. [Id. at 2]. The Probation Office, however, now informs the Court that the hospital has been unwilling to provide updates on Ms. Hillman's status and has refused even to verify that she is still in the hospital.
